OfficeOne Shape Locker is a helpful add-in for Microsoft PowerPoint that will allow users to selectively protect various shape attributes (position, rotation, shape, text, shape type, point editing, handles, and arrowheads) of various shapes within their presentations from accidental modifications. Although it provides a simple interface for locking and unlocking the shapes, its major drawback will be its inability to protect users from losing the visual reference to their PowerPoint content. With OfficeOne Shape Locker you will be able to easily protect specific shapes and its attributes from unwanted modifications, while they can still be easily selected and unlocked for the same operations.
