System Requirements:

There are no specific system requirements for Computer Battles. However, because the game is most likely to be played on a monitor, computer and sound card, the specifications for these are outlined below. Note that the above are very rough specifications as they assume that the monitor is a 16:9 and not a 4:3. A 4:3 monitor may have larger areas than the 16:9 version, so if you want to see as much detail as possible, make sure that your monitor is 16:9. Required Graphics Card : Unless your computer system has
